

City of Redmond Planning Commission July 14, 2004 Meeting Summary

Planning Commissioners in Attendance:

Kim Allen, Kate Dunn, Korby Parnell, Suzanne Querry, and Martin Snodgrass

Planning Commissioners in Excused and Not in Attendance:

Charlie McCarthy, Sue Petitpas

Staff and Guests in Attendance: Terry Marpert, Rob Odle, Terry Shirk.

Business Conducted:

Chair Martin Snodgrass called the meeting to order at 7:04 p.m.

The Commission approved the agenda, the May 26, 2004 meeting minutes, and the June 16 and June 23, 2004 meeting summaries.

Three people spoke to the Commission under Items from the Audience: Donald Marcy, Holly Plackett, and Gretchin Smith

Chair Snodgrass opened the study session on the completion of the Planning Commission's recommendation on the Grass Lawn Neighborhood Plan. Commissioners discussed the recommendation with staff, and approved a motion recommending approval of the neighborhood plan, 5-0.

Chair Snodgrass opened the study session on the proposed Economic Vitality Element of the Redmond Comprehensive Plan. After discussing the element with staff, the Commission approved a motion recommending approval of the Economic Vitality Element, 5-0.

Chair Snodgrass opened the study session on the proposed Transportation Element. The Commission reviewed comments submitted by Donald Marcy representing the Microsoft Corporation, and discussed them with staff. Commission discussion centered on the Transportation Issues List, primarily on the transportation demand and parking policies, and on concurrency policies. The Commission will only have four members available to attend the July 21 study session, and decided to also have a study session on transportation on July 28.

The Planning Commission adjourned at 10:00 p.m.